Tutoring Experience

Over the past 4 years, I have worked closely with students to prepare them for IGCSE Physics and Maths exams. My expertise also extends to A-Level and IB Physics, where I guide students through complex topics such as mechanics, thermodynamics, and quantum physics.

I have successfully supported students from diverse academic backgrounds, ensuring they achieve top grades and secure placements at prestigious universities. My focus has always been on helping students build confidence in understanding core principles and applying them effectively in challenging scenarios.
